LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Wednesday, May 22, 1867.

We will thank our readers for all local occursions in their immediate localities. If they do not wrote us a brief statement of everything of local interest in their respective communities. A list of deaths, accidents, fires, renovations, building-changes, &c. We will put them in form. The facts of this kind we can get the better it will be to our readers. Who will do it?

ADVERTISES.—Persons wishing advertisements must send them in early on Tuesday morning to insure their insertion for that week.

General Sickles, in South Carolina, and Gen. Griffin, in Texas, are appointing color men among the registration officers.

Mr. James Adams proprietor of a "proter water girl" saloon in St. Louis, has been sentenced to be imprisoned six months and pay a fine of $100, for employing girls as waiters contrary to law.

Taking Medicine to cure diseases occasioned by a deficiency of Iron in the blood without restoring it to the system, is like trying to repair a building when the foundation is gone. The Peruvian Syrup (a prototype of Iron) supplies this deficiency and builds up an Iron constitution.

The roads in almost every direction are in bad condition. To allow them to be so for any considerable length of time is the worst sort of economy in taxpayers; and to a stranger, must give an unfavorable opinion of the thrift and enterprise of the community where they exist.

DANVILLE.—In 1850, the population of Danville was 3,333; in 1855, it was 5422; in 1860, it was 7,500, and now it is not less than 10,000. There are 867 acres and 30 porches within the limits of the Borough.
It is now divided into four wards, with three members of council representing each ward.
Montgomery, Centralia, and Ashland.

are placed in the hands of MONTGOMERY COLE, to whom payment is requested made at the earliest convenience.

make payment to JOSEPH LILLEY.

cuit at C. C. Marr's first class grocery.

tice and Constables' Fee Bills, which can

The winter grain never looked more handsome in this County than it does this year. The prospects are also fair for a good crop.

The East Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed Church will meet in the United Church at Bloomsburg, on Tuesday evening, the 28th inst. There will be lectures every evening during the week.

John H. Bates has removed his store to the room in the "Old Arcade," S. H. Miller's store. He sells chairs, stands, bureaus, bedsteads, sofas, etc., &c., cheap for cash.

Any person wishing to purchase one of C. C. Marr's first class Piano will do well by purchasing a bill of us as part payment. We will give a liberal discount on the hundred dollar bill.

HARRY DAVIS' great Panorama of the Rebellion was exhibited in Snyder's on Thursday and Friday evenings.
It is the best exhibition of the kind raveling. He had some audience.

A cardigan for office going to me among the people in company the only responsible person who aided him—the candidate—and his civic neighbors arrested by military and imprisoned without cause.

ARTIFUL.—To see a laborer go to a jury and pay 47 cents for a pound of which cost but 6 cents; the eleven being a willing bonus paid for the of being equal to a bigger. —E.

PAY OF JURORS.—If we have read jury Bill correctly, Jurors are to be under it $2.50 per day for their and mileage at the rate of four a mile. Not too much. After a days he has but one dollar his day's wages.

Mr. C. C. Marr invites the public to examine his large and varied stock merchandise. He has a full stock of new and they are going off rapidly, at very low prices, "so the people Marr understands the business and is not to be undersold."

Dr. John says in his last issue, that men use his paper to advertise their Dr. Judson from the number of he must still on for more advertisements, or else consider himself of more importance than he is.

NEW RAILROAD.—At a meeting of holders of the Danville, Hazleton Lehigh Railroad, recently held at the following officers were elected:
S. P. Kasey, Directors; Wm. L.
Harrick, Wm. Hancock, A. F. Russell, Harricks, S. P. Wolverton, H. W.
Hollis and G. Hill.

There have been several additions to the law during the past session of the which we will publish from time to time.

There are more than we can give one publication. Next week we will the first part relative to sites for houses, &c. These sites are specially set out to the new boards of Directors we are about to be organized.

DR. O. F.—We have been requested for the information of the members of the Lodges in this section, as those who are not members, that ACOBY, Esq., of Berwick, is the authorized Agent for this County, to receive subscriptions for the "Old Folio," the only official published in the United States, by J.
Esq., in New York City. Terms, every member of the Order should copy. It is full of interesting news, neatly printed, and well worth

E. HENRIK KEYES, nephew of E. D. Keyes, late of the Federal the General Agent, who is at a stop through this State visiting the Lodges.

TO OWNERS OF CANARIES.—Many a person has seen a pet canary, or rather a bird, in a state of perturbation, plucking at himself continually, his feathers standing all wrong. In vain is food changed, and in vain is a saucer of clean water kept in his cage.
The cause of his wretchedness has not been found out. If the owner of a pet in such difficulties will take down the cage and look up to the roof thereof, there will most likely be seen a mass of stuff like red rust.— Is nothing more nor less than millions of parasites infesting the bird, and for which water is no remedy. By procuring a light candle and holding it under every particle on the top of the cage till all chance of anything being left alive is gone, the remedy is complete. The pet will soon be brightened up after his "house-warming."

THE OLD GUARD FOR JUNE.—The Old Guard for June is now ready. It opens with Mr. Gilmore Simms' New Story, followed by John Esten Cooke's description of the battle of Sharpsburg or Antietam.— Col. Jas. W. Wall furnishes a very fine description of "Hampton Court." The editor discourses on "Algernon Sydney's Writing on Liberty." Besides these there are a number of interesting literary articles, together with a piece of poetry by Paul H.
Hayne. All who desire to understand the idea of liberty, a taught by the great English apostle, Algernon Sidney, and contrast them with the present time, ought by all means, to secure this number of The Old Guard. For sale by all News Agents, 25 cents per copy, or $3 per year.
